PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

1. The primary objective is for all players to enjoy cricket in a happy and trouble free environment and to promote fair play and good sportsmanship.
2. To ensure this objective, players must:
 - Respect their fellow club members and opponents from other clubs (on and off the field)
 - Respect Club coaches, managers, officials and staff
 - Refrain from any form of abuse
 - Not use obscene or abusive language
 - Refrain from posting inappropriate comments on social network websites
 - Accept officials' and coaches' decisions and rulings at all times
 - Refrain from any criticism of players, coaches, or officials
 - Encourage and promote fair play
 - Learn and respect the laws and rules of the game
 - Abide by Cricket Scotland's Code of Conduct
 - Promote teamwork and consideration
 - Respect Club property and equipment and maintain same in good order
 - Not use other members' kit without express permission
 - Ensure club kit bags are properly packed after training sessions or matches
 - Be responsible for their own property, kit and belongings and secure any valuables in a safe place
 - Be punctual and appropriately dressed for all training sessions, meetings and matches
 - Not leave any training session, meeting or match early without permission from a coach or other official
 - Not be in possession of or have consumed solvents or illegal drugs while on Club property or representing the Club nor to consume tobacco or alcohol in inappropriate circumstances
